volume 1 February 2011

Welcome to the 2011 summer festival edition of aDm,

Adelaide's pulse is set to quicken as dance acts take to the stage for the Fringe and Womadelaide. The Fringe parade this year will feature over two hundred dancers - many of them cheerleaders - heralding the start of the festival season. With more than twenty dance shows in the Fringe program there is sure to be something for everyone, from the artistically challenging to the delightfully entertaining, so get a program and book now!

Performances highlighting our connections with Aboriginal culture during the festival season include the free dance program at the Spirit Festival by Creative Producer, Gina Rings in Mullahirraburka (Rymill Park) on 20 February and Breathe choreographed by Frances Rings for Leigh Warren and Dancers at Womadelaide on the evenings of 12 and 13 March. Kurruru Youth Performing Arts will perform Min Min at Tandanya from 25-27 February.

Ausdance SA is pleased to announce the appointment of Cherie Broad as Education and Projects Manager. Cherie successfully ran the Ausdance SA Education program last year while Peta Johnston was on maternity leave. Peta has decided to move interstate with her partner Dan Aubin and daughter Ayla. Dan is moving on from Cirkidz to take up a lecturing position at Charles Sturt University in Bathurst. Ausdance SA wishes Peta and Dan every success with their move interstate. If you would like to keep in touch with Peta her email address is johnstonpeta@hotmail.com. Please contact Cherie Broad at Ausdance SA for all of your dance education enquiries and to book tutors for Dancers in Schools workshops by email to education.sa@ausdance.org.au or call her in the office on 08 8212 0825.

Ausdance SA welcomes Ade Suharto who is taking on the role of Marketing Coordinator this year. We also bid farewell to Administration Assistant Crystal Burgon who has successfully completed her traineeship at Ausdance SA and gained a full-time position in the public service.

Choreolab is the Ausdance SA program supporting the development of new work by independent artists. The following dates have been set for Choreolab this year: Dance Week season 5-7 May and AC Arts season, 13-15 October.

Ausdance SA will present a free multicultural Dance Week performance at the Gawler Place canopy in Rundle Mall on Friday 29 April supported by the Adelaide City Council. Please contact us if you are interested in performing in either Choreolab or Dance Week in the Mall.

The Ausdance SA Annual General Meeting will be held at the Adelaide College for the Arts in Light Square, on Monday 18 April, from 6-7pm. At the Annual General Meeting members will receive copies of the Ausdance SA Annual Report, meet the board and hear about our activities. Ausdance SA will be updating its constitution at the AGM so we encourage members to attend to ensure that there is a quorum. Light refreshments will be served following the meeting.

It is that time of year again when memberships are due. Ausdance SA is a not for profit membership based organization and relies on having a base of financial members to represent the dance industry. Being a financial member also ensures that we have correct contact details and information about your dance activities. Membership forms are available from the SA section of the Ausdance website. Please fill out the form carefully to make sure we have correct information for the database.

Enjoy the summer season of dance!

Welcome to 2011!

Last year finished in a buzz with yet another successful December Dance Teachers Day. Over 40 teachers enjoyed a wide range of discussion and practical sessions. Thank you to everyone involved!

The Ausdance skill set for Teaching Dance

In January we began the first delivery of the Ausdance skill set for Teaching Dance in SA. We have a team of 11 up-and-coming and experienced teachers ranging from tango, hip hop, ballet, jazz and contemporary; both from the school and private studio sector. This course will finish mid-year and we will then take expressions of interest for a 2012 intake. So far the participants have had a lot of fun and already gained useful insights into teaching methodologies, safe dance and professional dance practices.

Dancers in Schools Program

I look forward to hearing from you for school or studio for bookings through our Dancers In Schools program. We run classes during school term and school holidays such as Vacation Care. Our tutors can plan a workshop specific to your requirements. Workshops can range from 60 minutes to several days, as one-off or weekly sessions. We have a fantastic range of cultural workshops including Bollywood, Brazilian, Javanese, Flamenco, Latin American, Indigenous Dance and Capoeira. Technique and choreography workshops are available in Hip Hop, Funk, Jazz, Break Dance, Contemporary, Tap and Ballet.

Dance Teacher Days

Please put the dates alongside in your diaries and feel free to put forward your requests for any specific professional development workshops for the April and December Dance Teacher Days. At the April Dance Teachers Day we will be treated to the SA launch of Lagaw Gub (Island Wind) Australia's first Torres Strait Island Dance Kit. This is a resource for schools and teachers. For further information on Lagaw Gub (Island Wind) visit www.lagawgub.com.

SACE Dance Day

For year 11 and 12 dance students SACE dance day is going to be fantastic. Ausdance SA will provide workshops in Contemporary and Jazz technique, Choreography, Composition, plus Partnering & Lifting.

Life In Movement

Tanja Liedtke

volume 1 February 2011

World Premiere at the Adelaide Film Festival

A dynamic portrait of an artist at work and the impact her life and death has on her collaborators.

In 2007 the Sydney Dance Company appointed 29-year-old choreographer Tanja Liedtke as their first new artistic director in 30 years. However before she could take up the position, she was struck and killed by a truck in the middle of the night. Admired internationally as a dancer and celebrated for her fresh choreographic voice, she was known as a dedicated artist, intelligent, dorky, funny and generous. 18 months after her death her collaborators embark on a world tour of her work, and in the process they must deal with their grief and explore the reasons for her death. Interspersed with intimate footage of her artistic process and previously unseen interviews, Life in Movement is a film about moving creatively through life and loss. Local filmmakers Bryan Mason and Sophie Hyde give us a powerfully rendered take on art and artists, creativity and our own mortality.

Be Your Self European Tour

ADT has started 2011 with a 9 country tour through western Europe of Garry Stewart's latest work - Be Your Self. The tour started in Brugge, Belgium on January 14. With a feature story on the local television news the two shows in Brugge were sold out.

Be Your Self has since performed in Villeneuve d'Ascq, St Etienne du Rouvray, Dusseldorf and Annemasse with 12 more cities to follow. ADT dancer Kialea-Nadine Williams is acting as the company's on the road correspondent with regular postings and photos on the ADT Facebook page.

Garry Stewart has also been creating a new work for the Royal Ballet of Flanders which premieres on February 4th as part of RBF's 'Ballet Menu' programme. His work will be seen along side new works by David Dawson, Matjash Mrozewski and William Forsythe.

ADT Dance Classes return for 2011

Following the highly successful Summer Dance Intensive in January, ADT is recommencing public dance classes at the company's Hawthorn studios from February 14.

The range of classes and times has been improved with Dance Fit being offered twice a week on Tuesdays and Thursdays, Starters Contemporary on Tuesdays after Dance Fit and Starters Adult Ballet and Contemporary Technique moving to Saturdays. Dance Class Co-ordinator Jo Naumann has introduced a new class for beginners called Dance General which uses techniques and routines from contemporary, ballet, jazz, funk, hip-hop and street styles on Thursday nights after Dance Fit. All classes are suitable for adults (aged 16 years +).

A full schedule and descriptions of each class can be found on the ADT website – www.adt.org.au and on the ADT Public Dance Class Facebook page - facebook.com/pages/ADT-Dance-Classes/100461900025327

For further information or to book email Dance Class Co-ordinator Jo Naumann on dcc@adt.org.au or call 0450 933 731.

Kat Worth's Sleep Disorder - an ADT's 2011 Enhanced project

Sleep Disorder is a new dance film development project directed by independent choreographer Kat Worth. Sleep Disorder is taking place as part of an Enhanced project at Australian Dance Theatre Jan 22- 7 Feb.

The project is a research and development that aims to create a visual video storyboard at the end of the two weeks. The storyboard will become the concept and marketing tool to source funds for making the film with full production values.

As the set is very small it has not been practical to invite an audience in to observe the process or outcome. Kat and the team however have posted daily Vlogs (video interviews) with artists and crew talking about what they have been doing and showing clips from the work. To view the YouTube channel click on this link: <http://www.youtube.com/user/MsDancingkat>

Country Arts SA presents Untrained by Lucy Guerin

Whether behind the scenes or on centre stage, Country Arts SA strives to support its regional dance communities and bring to life both large and small scale productions. 2011 is no exception.

Country Arts SA presents Untrained by Lucy Guerin Inc as part of its main stage performing arts program. In this extraordinary and unpredictable work, four men take to the stage. Two are highly skilled experienced dancers. The other two are completely untrained and recruited from regional South Australia. It could be someone you know!

Untrained Lucy Guerin Inc

On 16 March (venue TBA), Country Arts SA and Lucy Guerin will hold auditions for two young men with no formal dance training to become part of Untrained.

LUCY
GUERIN
INC.

Lucy will be looking for a physical contrast between the professional and untrained dancers. Untrained candidates should: be over 18; be available for workshop and relevant tour dates; be completely untrained in dance; be fit and healthy; not have any performance experience (no actors – amateur or professional, circus performers, comedians etc); not be recruited from dance schools.

The two recruits will be paid for full time rehearsals (Monday 27 June – Friday 1 July) and tour dates: Port Lincoln's Nautilus Theatre on 2 July, Whyalla's Middleback Theatre on 5 July and Port Pirie's Northern Festival Centre on 7 July. For more information and applications, email Saskia Davidson, Performing Arts Touring Officer, Country Arts SA on Saskia.davidson@countryarts.org.au

D'n'A (Dance'n'Action)

Country Arts SA's dance initiative, D'n'A (Dance'n'Action), is continuing its program of activities this year supporting regional communities, professional independent artists, and companies in the presentation and development of projects across the state. A snapshot of D'n'A assisted projects in early 2011.

- In February, a number of artists are preparing for the 2012 Goolwa Regional Centre for Culture. Artists include Kat Worth, who is seeking interested participants in a sight specific dance on film project involving local movers, film makers, musicians and visual artists; and Daniel Lee, founder of SABA the 'South Australian Breakdance Association' will be holding workshops for local dancers.

- During March, new contemporary dance company OnePoint618 will deliver several demo lectures and dance workshops in regional centers. The content will be based on Artistic Director Katrina Lazaroff's new dance work 'Involuntary' which will be being presented as part Adelaide Festival Centre's inSPACE: development program in May.

- On the 29 May, the Riverland dance community will present their third annual dance show case, which will feature a performance by the Australian Youth Ballet, directed by Michael Riggs.

Sisters Run Rings Around Spirit Festival 2011

Adelaide dance dynamos Gina and Frances Rings will leave an indelible mark on this year's Spirit Festival. The unstoppable pair will be organising, hosting, performing and choreographing throughout the weekend in Mullawirraburka (Rymill Park) in Adelaide's East End.

The incredibly diverse program has come together under the stewardship of the Spirit Festival's Creative Producer Gina Rings. Gina's previous work in choreography Petroglyphs – Signs of Life in collaboration with Leigh Warren & Dancers won awards and has toured widely. She was principal dancer in the film production Bran Nue Dae. Her latest work with Windmill, Nyunti Nyali won a Ruby Award in 2010 and the opening and closing ceremonies of 'The Dreaming' make her no stranger to organising large scale outdoor extravaganzas.

Under the mentorship of Gina Rings, Tandanya has been host to five emerging choreographers Rikki Wilson, Jamie Ngungana Goldsmith, Damien Ralphs, Kaeshan Khan and Adrienne Semmens. The boundaries of this mentorship program have been pushed ensuring a highly developed and professional program, which sees these young dancers choreograph a range of dance performances across the Spirit Festival's program.

Frances Rings

Internationally acclaimed dancer and choreographer Frances Rings will host a special day of culture on Sunday 20th February which will offer a wide range of traditional and contemporary dance experiences along with a host of other arts and entertainment activities.

After joining Bangara Dance Theatre in 1993 Frances studied and performed in New York and Washington before returning to Australia where she performed in the opening ceremony of the 2000 Olympics. In 2002 she made her choreographic debut with Bangara and went on to create four more major works with the company. Among her many awards are several Helpmann, Deadly and Ausdance Awards.

Frances will host the day of free entertainment presenting dance groups from the APY Lands, the Riverlands, the Kaurna Plains and the Torres Strait Islands as well as a line up of the best local Indigenous music South Australia has to offer.

In a festival first, the Spirit Festival will present a collaborative work featuring the choreography of both Gina and Frances with Leigh Warren & Dancers on the Pati Yerta dance ground, as part of the program of cutting edge Indigenous dance from around the country. Songlines brings a unique and exciting exploration of Indigenous relationships to country and identity in a startling piece of contemporary dance.

The Spirit Festival dance program represents an eclectic array of traditional and contemporary Indigenous Australian dance which brings the unique cultures of this country into focus in a specially created environment in the shadiest part of Mullawirraburka (Rymill Park). What promises to be an enriching day of art and culture for everyone gets underway at 11am on Sunday 20th February. Spirit Festival 2011 is presented by Tandanya National Aboriginal Cultural Institute and is supported by the SA Government's Social Inclusion Unit. All events are alcohol and drug free. Kurruru brings its new work Min Min to the Fringe at Tandanya Informed by the stories of the Ngarrindjeri people, Min Min will ask audiences to see into the relationship Aboriginal people have with country. Exploring the ways Aboriginal perspectives offer explanations to events that differ from those of the mainstream.

The work has been created under the direction of Deon Hastie with the first development taking place along side the Murray River.

Min Min will challenge audiences to see how an Aboriginal perspective offers explanations that are different from the conventional and scientific.

“The Min Min are a phenomena that science has explained but still doesn’t really understand and Aboriginal communities have a completely different way of understanding and relating to them. That is what this show is about”, says Deon.

Adelaide-based dance collective Vision4Dance (V4D) - in association with Barristers Block Premium Wines - presents a powerful yet sensitive contemporary performance inside an old rustic barn in the heart of the Adelaide Hills. Titled SAFE but UNSAFE, the work communicates safe and unsafe spaces, exploring its link to the concept of the 'hunter being hunted'. The performance has been choreographed by Vision4Dance members Lisa Lonero, Rebecca Bainger and Jo Naumann, under the mentorship of Katrina Lazaroff.

Catering for the dance and non-dance audience, V4D produces contemporary dance works that are more accessible to the everyday person, whilst maintaining the merit of the craft. "Contemporary dance around the globe has become very confounding for the non-dance audience, leaving viewers unenthused about the dance scene in general," says V4D Director Lisa Lonero. "Vision4Dance is passionate about bringing about a middle ground, producing more comprehensible works through 'edutainment' - education through entertainment. We are taking the Fringe into the heart of the Adelaide Hills where locals and city goers can enjoy the experience of food and wine alongside the professional standard of contemporary dance."

Be sure to arrive early in order to take advantage of the boutique cellar door and the luscious gardens of the estate - sit back under the majestic trees and take in the serenity of the Adelaide Hills prior to the performance. Vision4Dance is an independent dance collective that performs vibrant, innovative contemporary dance works. They are comprised of emerging artists and performers committed to the progression of dance in South Australia.

Their work is project-based and operated from private and government support. SAFE but UNSAFE is proudly supported by Barristers Block Premium Wines, Andersons Solicitors and ABAF's Premiers Arts Partnership Fund.

Congratulations to Erin Fowler, emerging dance performer and choreographer. She graduated from the Adelaide College of the Arts in 2010 and has received a JUMP mentorship grant. The first stage of her project will be the development of a program of dance work titled TeaHouse, presented collaboratively with Perth-based dance collective Unkempt Dance at the Adelaide Fringe Festival in March.

Tobiah Booth-Remmers has also received a JUMP mentorship. He graduated from the Adelaide Centre for the Arts Bachelor of Dance Performance course in 2009. Tobiah continues to develop his work In Absence Of with a view to present the work in Adelaide, before touring the work regionally. Tobiah will be mentored by Carol Wellman Kelly.

Carol Wellman Kelly is project manager for a first-stage film development with Kat Worth and associate director Gabrielle Griffin. Performing in the project are dancers Dan Daw and Alison Currie.

Sally Chance is about to commence work on a Creative Education Partnerships Artist in Residence project at the Lady Gowrie Early Education Centre. The residency will enable Sally and her team of artists to work with children in the pre-school and child centre at Thebarton. "... to be with children is to work with one third certainty and two-thirds uncertainty and the new." Loris Malaguzzi, Reggio Emilia.

Katrina Lazaroff has formed a new dance theatre and education company called Onepoint618. The company will present a lecture demonstration at SACE Dance Day on Tuesday 15 March.

Katrina has also received support from Arts SA for the production Involuntary which will be presented by the Adelaide Festival Centre inSPACE: development program from 6-7 May. (Mark it in your diaries now!) The work is a humorous and confronting look at our ability to operate in a society driven by greed, economic growth and technological advancement. For details on Katrina's company visit www.onepoint618.com.au

Studio Flamenco's production, Arte y Compás (artistry and rhythm) received a positive review from Australian Stage: "The show is an exceptional collaboration of artistes from Spain and Adelaide who have come together with the result being a powerfully passionate and strong demonstration of what is best about the traditional juerga style." Felecia Hick and Carlie Angel in Hong Kong

volume 1 February 2011

Felecia Hick and Carlie Angel recently returned from Hong Kong where the two artists participated in Connecting Conversations: Choreography Now! in Chinese Communities. This international dance symposium formed part of the 2010 Hong Kong Dance Festival. Felecia was selected from an international field of applicants, to teach a masterclass and choreographic workshop at the symposium with assistance from Carlie. Felecia and Carlie enjoyed teaching students and artists with training backgrounds very different to Australian dance training. Both artists were supported by a professional development grant from Arts SA.

Want your slice of the dance action in Asia as well? Make sure you attend the Asia Pacific International Dance Conference 2011 which will be held in Kuala Lumpur from 21-25 September. This year's conference entitled Hybridity in Dance: Researching, Performing and Writing Old and New Genres, will also include the Annual General Meeting of the World Dance Alliance Asia-Pacific. Make your mark now as proposals for paper presentations are due on 15 March, visit: www.wda-ap.org/wda-ap/wda_event/2011.htm
